VIETNAM FILE

A Million Americans in Vietnam?

A top-level Pentagon analyst claims that to win the Vietnam war by 1970 the U.S. would have to deploy 750,000 to 1 million troops and spend about $75 billion a year. Current plans call for supporting 525,000 U.S. troops in Vietnam by mid-1968 at a cost of $25 billion a year. But at that level, this officer claims, the war could drag on for ten more years.

A Union Walkout on the War

Opposition to the war in Vietnam is growing in the ranks of organized labor. In fact, three key leaders of the AFL-CIO—Emil Mazey of the

Newsweek, September 11, 1967